

Questions to Ask Your Child's Teacher to Positively Impact Their Future and Learning at School

Is my child kind?

Does my child try his/her best?

Does my child enjoy learning?

Is my child happy?

Does my child persevere through difficult tasks?

Does my child have friends?

Is my child compassionate toward others?

Does my child have something that he/she excels at?

Does my child follow directions?

Is my child responsible?

Does my child smile and laugh?

Does my child have a growth mindset?

Is my child curious?

What does my child love to read?

Does my child pay attention?

Is my child respectful toward their teachers and their peers?

Does my child show creativity in the classroom?

Does my child like learning?

If you ask these questions, you will discover new things about your child and find more ways to support their learning. Trust your child's teacher, and support them in their efforts of helping your child grow and develop into becoming the very best possible version of themselves.

Resource: <https://www.weareteachers.com/questions-to-ask-teachers/>